Pope Leo X threatened to excommunicate Martin Luther if he did not recant his religious beliefs

Springtime of Oct 1520

The Capt of the San Antonio, largest ship in Magellan's fleet turned back.
(They were near winter in Patagonia) the Santiago had previously run ashore on a beach in a squall. Her crew joined the other 4 ships

It took a month to sail their way through the stormy strait (now called Straits of Magellan)

When he reached the Great South Sea, it was sunny and calm after the temper of the Strait. He named it Pacific.

Then up the coast, then west. Biscuits turned to powder - crawling with worms. Drinking water was yellow and abore ; they held their noses to get it down. Men paid $\frac{1}{2}$ a ducat for rats until no more could be found. Leather wrappings from the men's mits became food. Scurvy set in they finally caught fish & seabirds, but not fruit or veggies.
Scurvy covered their bodies with sores

Nov 28, 1520

Portuguese navigator Ferdinand Magellan reached the Pacific Ocean after passing through the South American strait that now bears his name.
